

How are the index returns computed?

Answer

Index returns are simply the ratio of prices from period to period, plus any dividends and distributions (equity indices) or debt service (debt indices).

Related topics

- Asset Values \(Prices\)
- Total Investment Return